Dear Andrew

I am just writing to say a very big thank you to you and all the companies who contributed to the artists' gift bags for "Carols in the Domain 2009". As always, the bags were amazing and all the artists absolutely loved them.

The artists give up a lot of their time for rehearsals and the actual concert. To receive a gift bag like this is such an incredible way to say thank you to them. They really do appreciate it.

Carols 2009 saw the biggest on ground crowd in our 27 year history. It had a real international flavor with Engelbert Humperdinck and Katherine Jenkins. We also had quite a few first timers, which doesn't often happen given how long the event has been running. These included Kate Ceberano, The McClymonts, Rebecca Breeds from Home and Away, Stan Walker and PJ Lane.

The Seven Network, who broadcast the concert, were thrilled with the ratings, as were our major sponsors, Woolworths, Telstra and MLC. We are all looking forward to another big show in 2010.

As you know, Carols in the Domain is a free community event that raises much needed funds for the The Salvation Army's Oasis Youth Support Network and The Salvation Army's Christmas Appeal. You will be pleased to know that Oasis raised a record amount of $123,000.

Your contribution and that of all the companies who donate their fantastic products does not go unnoticed and is very much appreciated by everyone involved in the production of Carols in the Domain. Again, thank you very much.

Yours sincerely
